The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of miners of every description, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the business of coal-miners, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise and to work and develop coal and other mines, and all kinds of mining locations, ores, and minerals, and to explore, develop, work, and treat any and all such mines, mining locations, coal, ores, and minerals, and to pay for the same, either by cash, exchange, barter, or by the allotment of shares of this Company:

(b.) To buy, sell, and deal in real estate, mines, and minerals, and particularly lands containing veins or seams of coal in or under the said lands anywhere whatsoever in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to acquire such lands, mines, real estate, either by purchase, lease, or exchange, or in any way whatsoever as may seem advisable to the Company:

(c.) To produce and sell coal and oil, and to manufacture and sell any and all of the by-products from coal:

(d.) To acquire, sell, maintain, make, and use all pits, shafts, drifts, levels, drains, water-courses, and reservoirs, and to acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, erect, maintain, and use tram-roads and other roads, bridges, culverts, buildings, works, engines, machinery, coal-bunkers, and all conveniences whatsoever as may be necessary or convenient for searching for, working, getting, preparing, carrying away, and selling and disposing of the products of the said mines or seams of coal upon any lands whatsoever acquired by the Company:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, hire, exchange, lease, or otherwise, and to build, construct, erect, maintain, alter, and change, wharves and docks and lands for the same on tidal waters, lakes, rivers, and other waters, and rights-of-way thereto and therefrom, docks, bunkers for coal, and any such houses, buildings, tram-roads, and other roads, bridges, rights-of-way, and other buildings and works as may be necessary for the more convenient mining, carrying away, selling, and disposing of the products of mines and minerals and the by-products therefrom:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, for the use of the Company, their agents, servants, or workmen, free and uninterrupted rights-of-way, ingress and egress for persons, animals, and vehicles through, along, or over any piece or parcel of land necessary and expedient to pass over to and from their lands, mines, docks, and wharves, and other property of the Company whatsoever:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, charter-party, contract, or otherwise steamboats, tug-boats, sailing-vessels, or any other kind of boats or vessels whatsoever, and to build and construct any such kind of boats or vessels deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes and objects of the Company; and to use, maintain, or operate any of such boats and vessels or all of such boats and vessels for the conveying-away of the coal and other products of the mines and mineral lands of the Company or otherwise:

(h.) To construct and lay down sewers, drains, and water-pipes in and upon and to and from the property and mines and mineral lands of the Company for the purpose of conveyance to and from any such lands for the better maintaining and developing of the works and business of the Company:

(i.) To prospect and search for mines and minerals, and particularly for veins and seams of coal, and doing improvement and development work in connection with prospective mines, and acquiring options upon and carrying out investigations of mineral lands, or purchase same, in all respects as fully and effectually as an individual can or may do:

(j.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any lands or shore-rights for any water-power or other power, and to construct, procure, and maintain dams, machinery, buildings, and all appliances whatsoever for the development of such water or other power for the purpose of enabling the Company to carry out more effectually and economically the mining operations of the said Company:

(k.) To dispose of the products of the mines of the Company in any way or manner deemed best, and to sell their coal either by contract, wholesale, or retail, and to maintain, control, and operate coal-yards and coal-bunkers in any city or town in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as may appear beneficial to the interests of the Company:

(l.) To act as agent for fuel-dealers or producers, and sell and store and otherwise keep fuel of all kinds for them for such remuneration as may be agreed upon:

(m.) To acquire by purchase, lease, pre-emption, or in exchange or otherwise, land and any interests therein, and to hold the same, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, and to survey, lay out townsites, and subdivide the same or any part thereof, and to clear, manage, farm, cultivate, dyke, reclaim, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve the same, and sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same or any portion thereof or any interest therein when and as the Company may deem fit, and to deal in any products thereof:

(n.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of their business, and for the purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(o.) To develop and turn to account any land or other property acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular the laying-out of townsites and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings and works of every description, and by planting, paving, draining, dyking, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement or otherwise, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with purchasers, builders, tenants, and others:

(p.) To own, construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage townsites, waterworks, gasworks, reservoirs, tramways, electric power, heat, and light supply works, telephone-works, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores and shops, and any industrial, educational, recreation, or other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to its welfare, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof, and to collect remuneration for the use of the same:

(q.) The acquisition of water and water-power by records or unrecorded water, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges for and the application of such water and water-powers to any of the purposes of the Company:

(r.) The use of water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and for constructing, operating, and maintaining electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity or electric power or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or by persons, municipalities, and companies contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power for the operation of motors, machinery, or electric-lighting or other works, or to be supplied by the Company to consumers for lighting, heating, or for propelling tramways as a motive power, or for driving, hauling, lifting, pumping, lighting, crushing, smelting, drilling, and milling, or for any other operations to which it may be adapted, or to be used or supplied for or in connection with any other purposes for which electricity or electric power may be applied or required:

(s.) The use of water for water-power by hydraulic-mining purposes, for general irrigation purposes within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, other than the generation of electricity:

(t.) Placing, sinking, laying, fitting, maintaining, and repairing electric lines, accumulators, storage-batteries, electric cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections, branches, electric motors, dynamos, engines, machines, or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, water-courses, pipes, poles, buildings, and other erections and works, and erecting and placing any electric line, cable, main, wire, or other electric apparatus above or below ground:

(u.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in any manner that the Company shall think fit, and in particular by pledging or mortgaging any of the Company's mines, mineral lands, or other real or personal property or assets, and by the issuing of debentures, bonds, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, and to redeem and pay off from time to time all such security:

(v.) To draw, make, accept, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(w.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for charges, debentures, or security of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(x.) To make and enter into agreements and contracts with any person or persons, company or companies, municipalities, Government, or corporation as the Company may deem advisable:

(y.) To erect and build dwelling-houses for its employees and workmen, and any and all other buildings necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Company:

(z.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may deem best:

(aa.) To carry on the business of logging and lumbering in all or any of its branches, and the procuring of and dealing in all kinds of products of the forest:

(bb.) To carry on business as timber or lumber merchants, mill proprietors, and timber-growers, and to cut, buy, sell, grow, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in which timber or wood is used:

(cc.) To purchase, sell, and deal in timber limits or concessions, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise timber of every description, and to acquire and hold and deal in timber licences or leases from the Crown or otherwise howsoever:

(dd.) To construct, manage, carry out, maintain, improve, work, control, and acquire in any way any works, ways, logging-roads, tramways, bridges, or other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the operations of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations:

(ee.) To acquire and carry on any part of the business or property and to undertake any liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of the Company:

(ff.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on or about to carry on business similar altogether or in part to this Company:

(gg.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks of, and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligation of, any such company:

(hh.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(ii.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise:

(jj.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(kk.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company, upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, and obligations of any other Company:

(ll.) To pledge, sell, or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(mm.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company, and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

(nn.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by this Company, as hereinbefore stated, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(oo.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 1 (1943).

Order establishing a Minimum Wage in the Logging Industry.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "logging industry" includes all operations in or incidental to the carrying-on of logging; pole, tie, shingle-bolt, mining-prop, and pile cutting, and all operations in or incidental to hauling by truck or rail, driving, rafting, and booming of logs, poles, ties, shingle-bolts, mining-props, and piles.

2. That, subject to the exemptions granted from time to time under section 6 of the "Male Minimum Wage Act," and to the provisions of sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 hereof, the minimum wage for every employee in the logging industry shall be forty cents (40c.) per hour.

3. That the minimum wage for every employee in the logging industry engaged in grade and track operations shall be thirty-seven and one-half cents (37½c.) per hour.

4. That the minimum wage for every employee in the logging industry engaged in cook- and bunk-house occupations shall be two dollars and seventy-five cents ($2.75) per day.

5. That every employee in the logging industry employed in the making of shingle-bolts—that is felling, bucking, and splitting—shall be paid a minimum price or rate of one dollar and thirty cents ($1.30) per cord according to the official scale or measurement, and such rate or price shall be paid pro rata, according to the hours worked to each and every person so engaged under a contract or agreement for making shingle-bolts.

6. That watchmen employed in watching logging camps in which operations are entirely suspended are exempt from the provisions of this Order.

7. (a.) That every employee in the logging industry, including employees covered by any other Order of the Board (but not including employees referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of this section), shall be paid at a rate of one and one-half times his regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) in any one day or forty-eight (48) in any one week.

(b.) That in any case where an arrangement with respect to hours of work has been established pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the "Hours of Work Act" the overtime rates fixed in this section shall not apply to any employee until he has completed the hours so established.

(c.) That the provisions of this section shall not apply to employees employed in the logging industry in the following occupations:—

Persons holding positions of management and supervision, as defined in section 4 of the "Hours of Work Act."

Cook- and bunk-house employees.

Watchmen.

Caretakers.

Storekeepers, time-keepers, and office employees when employed on a monthly basis.

First-aid attendants covered by Order No. 39 of the Board.

Employees engaged exclusively in the transportation of men or supplies.

(d.) That this section shall apply only west of the Cascade Mountains.

8. That this Order shall not apply to apprentices in the logging industry who are duly indentured pursuant to the provisions of the "Apprenticeship Act" of the Province of British Columbia.

9. That this Order shall become effective on the 2nd day of August, 1943, and be in substitution for Order No. 1 (1940) of the Board, dated the 8th day of October, 1940, establishing a minimum wage in the logging industry, which is hereby rescinded.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
